American Consumer Credit Counseling Receives Approval From The EOUST to Provide Pre and Post Bankruptcy Counseling

NEWTON, MA DECEMBER 2009 - American Consumer Credit Counseling (ACCC) announced it has been approved by the EOUST* to provide credit counseling under the bankruptcy code. As a result ACCC is able to provide pre bankruptcy and post bankruptcy debtor education to consumers nationwide.

“This is a very difficult time for many individuals and families, and we are pleased that we are now able to be part of this stamp of approval from the EOUST*,” said Steve Trumble, president of ACCC. “Consumers need our help and we can now provide them with the necessary counseling in order to file, as well as the education needed for discharge.”

ACCC is one of the largest nonprofit consumer credit counseling agencies in the country. They provide bankruptcy counseling services 5 days a week and are available by telephone, face to face, and online. Counseling is available in English as well as Spanish.

Founded in 1991, ACCC is dedicated to helping people regain control of their finances and plan for a debt free and healthy future. ACCC provides professional financial solutions for consumers and their families, including housing counseling, bankruptcy counseling, a debt management plan, budget counseling, financial resources, and community education programs. ACCC’s professionally certified counselors assist individuals and families in all of their financial needs and provide options that will help them live a healthy financial future.

ACCC is a member of the Association of Independent Consumer Credit Counseling Agencies (AICCCA) and has an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau.

Approved to issue certificates in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. Approval does not endorse or assure the quality of the Agency’s services. EOUST regulations do not apply to residents of NC or AL*

About ACCC:

American Consumer Credit Counseling (ACCC) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to empowering consumers to regain control of their lives through education, counseling, and debt management. ACCC provides individuals with practical solutions for solving financial problems and recognizes that consumers’ financial difficulties are often not the result of poor spending habits, but more frequently from extenuating circumstances beyond their control. As one of the nation’s leading providers of financial education and credit counseling services, ACCC works with consumers to help them with the best plan of action to reduce their debt and regain financial stability.
